

Archangel Michael Speaks Channeled by Jeff Fasano

A Message for March 2024

A Reconnection to the Spirit Self

From the Archangelic Realm of Michael this is Michael and We come to you as you are opening up to new parameters in your life and new vortexes as new vortexes are opening up on your earthly plain. New pathways are opening up in the connection to the multi-dimensional realm. Now as you move into your month of March it is about a reconnection to the multi-dimensional realms. On your earthly realm, the third dimensional realm in which you inhabit it is now about continuing to open your heart space as you move into the third month of your year of 2024. It is now time to foster your connection to multi-dimensional reality or your spirit self, the connection to multi-dimensional energies. It is about deepening that passage way, opening it and making the passageway more accessible for you and other energies that are moving into your earthly plain as new vortexes will be opening up in your month of March ushering in new energies. New energies that will raise the resonance and vibration yourself and the earthly plain around you.

In many ways, the new energies that will be moving in your month of March through these vortexes that are opening will deepen the level of truth within you and what you see in the third dimensional realm. In many ways your month of March is a moment of truth as you transition from your month of February into March. We said to you the last time We came to you that each and every month is a transition, a transition into something new, something new in the depth and breadth your heart space. A transition to something new in your life.

Basically, what We are saying to you, these vortexes opening up in your month of March will be ushering in new energies. It is about you connecting to these new energies and opening up, deepening and widening that aspect of your heart space to the multi-dimensional realm. Many have drifted from this and became more deeply entrenched in the third dimensional realm and what is transpiring outside of them in your government and political systems.

It is now time for each and every one of you if you so choose as you move into your month of March is open that passage way to the connection to the multi-dimensional realms. The energies moving in will reveal a greater depth of truth within you and in your third dimensional realm. Opening your eyes wider to the truth and reality of what is transpiring around you with the assistance of the multi-dimensional energies, the higher resonant energies that will be moving into your earthly plain in your month of March.

As you take on the responsibility of the connection to these energies from multi-dimensional realms they will open your heart space more deeply. These energies will bring more clarity to you, to who you are and the relationships you are having with those outside of yourself. A greater depth of truth and in many ways a greater depth of discernment of the criteria you have for relationships with those outside of you.

In many ways this is a deepening period. Deepening the sense of love of self, your talents, gifts and abilities. As these energies move through new vortexes that will begin to open on the 15th of your month of March through the end of the month, they will begin to bring more plains and platitudes of energy that will surround you in truth. The truth of yourself and the truth in the relationships you are having with those outside of you. And the truth in the relationship you are having with the third dimensional realm outside of you.

As you move through your month of March, We ask you as We have many times before, look at the relationships you are having outside of you in the third dimensional realm and look at your relationship to the third dimensional realm. In many ways it is why it is more of moving into the depth and breadth of your heart space to reconnect multi-dimensionally into the spirit self, into the self of the multi-dimensional realm. Looking at your multi-dimensional self and the multi-dimensional self of reality in your third dimensional realm as it moves in juxtaposition to the energies moving in from the 5th, 6th, and 7th dimensions. See your life blossoming in this way.

In many ways your month of March is a reconnection to the spirit self. A reconnection to multi-dimensional energies. A reconnection to that part of yourself which you may have left behind where you became more entrenched in the third dimensional realm. In many ways it is a revisitation of yourself in a more multi-dimensional form that is you. A reconnection to the God consciousness, the Christ consciousness. A reconnection to the Spirit Self where you are releasing cause and effect and all that needs to be released so you can now move in the greatness and grandness of self.
